

MyLabSchool Student Resources for Blackboard

Blackboard is part of your school's information technology network. If this is your first Blackboard course then you may need to check with your school's Help Desk to learn more about using the Blackboard system on your campus.

Getting started:

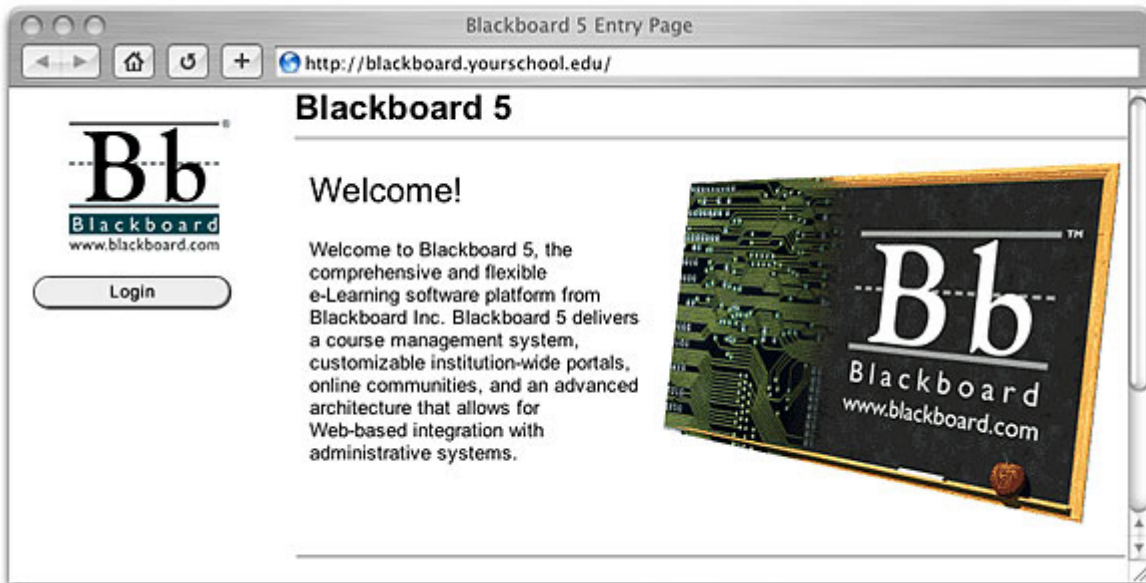

The course information you'll need for your MyLabSchool Blackboard course may have already been sent to you by your school, or you can obtain it from your instructor or campus Blackboard administrator.

What you'll need:

1. The Internet address (URL) where your college hosts its Blackboard courses.
2. Your personal Blackboard login name and password. Your Blackboard account is generally set up for you by your school.
3. Your Blackboard login name and password to access your courses. Check with your instructor for more information on creating your Blackboard login name and password.
4. The access code in your MyLabSchool Resources for Blackboard and WebCT student access card.

Register for MyLabSchool Resources

1. Open your web browser and use the information above to log onto your campus Blackboard server.

2. From your Blackboard Homepage, click the course with MyLabSchool in its name or on the course name provided by your instructor.
3. From the Announcements page in your course, click on the "Login to use the MyLab resources in this course" link to begin the registration process for the MyLabSchool Resources.

If you've already registered for an online product published by Addison Wesley, Allyn & Bacon, Benjamin Cummings, Longman, or Prentice Hall, you may already have a Pearson Education Account. If you're not sure, you can find out here.

The advantage of using an existing account is that we can pre-fill most information in this process, add this subscription to your existing account, and you'll have only one Login Name and Password to remember for accessing multiple online products. Need Help?

Access Code

Your Access Code should look like this. Enter it here, without dashes.

After you submit this form, you'll receive confirmation of your username and password. Once you receive your login name and password, you're ready to login to the MyLabSchool Resources!

Logging in to MyLabSchool in Blackboard Resources

Make sure you've registered for the MyLabSchool in Blackboard Resources. Refer to the Registering for MyLabSchool Resources section above.

If you have a Pearson login name but are unsure whether it is valid, you can check by logging into your Pearson Account Summary at <https://register.pearsoncmg.com/userprofile/>.

1. From your Blackboard Homepage click on your course.
2. Click on the "Login to use the MyLab resources in this course" link to login to the MyLabSchool resources.
3. Enter your login name and password and click "Log in."

The screenshot shows a login interface with a dark blue header that says "Returning User". Below the header, the text reads "If you have already registered, Log In here." There are two input fields: "Login Name" and "Password". Below the password field is an orange "Log In" button. At the bottom of the form, there are two links: "Forgot your Login Name/Password?" and "View Your Account Summary".

4. After clicking on the "Log In" button, you'll know you have successfully logged into the MyLabSchool Resources if you are brought to the page below:

Click the close window button to return to your course. You can now access the MyLabSchool Resources in your course!
